Asure Software Announces Addition of iClock Advanced to Popular iEmployee Time & Attendance Product

Increased Capabilities and Greater Flexibility to Manage Time Punches

AUSTIN, TX, Apr 29, 2008 (MARKET WIRE via COMTEX News Network) -- Asure Software (NASDAQ: ASUR), a leading provider of workforce management software, announced the release of the new iClock Advanced web-based punch clock interface to its popular iEmployee Time & Attendance product. iClock Advanced adds improved capabilities and greater flexibility making it easier for users to manage time punches according to assigned work schedules.

These new iEmployee Time & Attendance features were driven by customers and reflect a range of new capabilities and benefits including:

- Using grace periods to determine what is considered "on-time"
- Rounding to a scheduled punch within a grace period
- Establishing thresholds to determine when employee is considered early or late
- Stipulating lunches and breaks to be paid or unpaid
- Establishing company-wide scheduling defaults
- Inputting shifts in an easy-to-use spreadsheet layout

"With this release we increase the Time & Attendance product's flexibility to serve a broader range of customers and meet more complex customer requirements," said John Stockton, Vice President of Product Management for Asure Software. "iEmployee Time & Attendance remains the easiest product in its market to buy, implement and use."
