Forgent Announces Results for the 2007 Fiscal Third Quarter

Company Reports $6.0M in Profit, IP Revenue of $20.0M and Software Bookings Growth of 10%

AUSTIN, TX -- 05/30/2007 -- Forgent™ Networks, Inc. (NASDAQ: FORG) today announced results for the 2007 fiscal third quarter ended April 30, 2007. For the quarter, the company reported net income of approximately $6.0 million. Highlights for the quarter include:

- Reported $20.0M in IP revenue related to settlements associated with the '746 patent.
- Grew cash and investments from $18.0M to $26.1M, an increase of 45% over the prior quarter-end.
- Operating expenses increased to $4.2M due to litigation expenses related to the '746 patent trial.
- Achieved profitability for the third consecutive quarter.
- Grew NetSimplicity revenues from the same period last year to $1.0M from $0.6M.

"We are pleased to report the first revenue related to the '746 patent. This was a strong validation of the merit of the program. While we are disappointed by the verdict in the jury trial, we believe that the patent is valid and continue to weigh our options. Additionally, our NetSimplicity software business reported strong bookings growth of 10%. The growth on NetSimplicity revenues year over year is significant and we have made investments to secure the continued growth prospects for this business," commented Richard Snyder, chairman and CEO of Forgent.

Intellectual Property

U.S. Patent No. 6,285,746 (the '746 Patent)

Forgent received $20.0M in Intellectual Property related revenue for the third quarter of fiscal 2007 related to settlements with six cable television defendants and three related equipment and software manufacturers. The Company has reached an agreement in principal to settle with one satellite television defendant for $8.0M and expects to reach a final definitive settlement agreement in the fourth quarter of fiscal 2007. Cost of sales for the Intellectual Property business includes contingency fees to attorneys associated with the '746 Patent litigation. Gross margin for the third quarter of fiscal 2007 was approximately $9.4M compared to $0.03M for the prior quarter.

Forgent went to trial against the two remaining defendants for infringement of its '746 Patent in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Texas, Tyler Division. The jury trial concluded on May 21, 2007 with a finding that the asserted claims of the patent are invalid. The '746 Patent relates to a computer controlled video system that allows playback during recording.

Software

NetSimplicity software revenue remained flat at approximately $1 million for the third quarter of fiscal 2007, as compared to the prior quarter. While revenue was flat, this was the second consecutive quarter of bookings growth for NetSimplicity. Timing was such that the revenue associated with these bookings will not be reported until later periods. NetSimplicity's bookings growth can be attributed to several factors including investments in the sales and marketing organization, an overall strong performance by the sales team, the growing customer base investing further with additional purchases and upgrades, and a growing average sales price due to the penetration of larger accounts.

Fiscal Third Quarter Results

Revenue was approximately $21.0 million for the 2007 fiscal third quarter compared to $1.0 million for the 2007 fiscal second quarter. Total operating expenses of $4.2 million increased by approximately $1.5M from the prior quarter. The company reported net income of $6.0 million or $0.23 per share for the third fiscal quarter of 2007, as compared to net income $1.3 million or $0.05 per share for the second quarter of 2007. Cash and investments were $26.1 million for the quarter.

Outlook

Forgent expects to generate IP licensing revenue in the 2007 fiscal fourth quarter, as discussed. In addition, we believe NetSimplicity will continue to be a growth business for Forgent.
